

2012-2013 Racing Kangaroos (Australia and NZ)

2 nd	Stage 3 Tour of the Northwest - National Road Series
1 st Sprint Classification	Tour of Toowoomba - National Road Series
1 st	Wagga Wagga Cycling Classic
	Tour of the Southland

2014 Phoenix Cycling Collective (Canberra and National Road Series)

	Tour of Canberra
	Tour of the Murray
	Gippsland Tour
	Tour of the South coast
	Tour of the Southland, New Zealand

2015 -2016 Data #3 (UCI Continental Cycling, National Road Series and International UCI Cycling Circuit)

1 st Stage 2	New Zealand Cycle Classic (2.2)
2 nd	Oceania Continental Championship – ITT(CC)
1 st Stage 1	Tour of Borneo (2.2)
3 rd Stage 9	Tour of Poyang Lake
	Battle on the Border
3 rd Stage 4	Herald Sun Tour (2.1)
	Cadel Evans Great Ocean Road Race (1.HC)
	Herald Sun Tour (2.1)
	Profonde van Noord-Holland (1.2)
	Arno Wallaard Memorial (1.2)
	ZODC Zuidenveld Tour (1.2)
	Ronde van Overijssel (1.2)
1 st	Enkhuizen Criterium
10 th Stage 6	An Post Ras (2.2)
	Tour de Singkarak, Indonesia (2.2)
2 nd Stage 1	Tour Poyang Lake
1 st stage 9	Tour of Pyang Lake

2017 -2018 Eleven Roadbike Philipines/ CCN Rassine (see below)

DNF Broken collarbone	Herald Sun Tour (2.1)
-----------------------	-----------------------

Craig then moved to China and rode as an individual. After some success he gained further sponsorship and support in the 2018 season with CCN Rassine. Craig Remained in China racing in national races around the country until deciding to pursue a different career away from the bike in 2019 in Australia. Craig said the final two years of his career were his most successful. He learnt a lot, experienced many special moments. He peaked in his cycling career and learnt how to plan and execute a successful race.